present. The ministers who gave the move-Sproull, of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, and Rev. W. R. Mackay, of St. Peter's Protestant Episcopal Church. Miss Basendari (Daisy Hutchinson), of this city, and Miss Georgia Young, of Grand Rapids,

Rev. Mr. Locke explained how the movement had been started by Miss Basendorf's offer of $1,000 and her house for one year. He said that since the meeting held on Monday, letters had been written to Grand Rapids, inquiring about Miss Young's work there. The replies were satisfactory and praised Miss Young. Letters were read from the Methodist and the Episcopal ministers of Grand Rapids, and from Mrs. S. A. King, who was at the head of the home in that city. The Episcopal minister and Mrs. King spoke very highly of the work started by Miss Young, but Rev. Mr. Graham, the Methodist minister, did not praise so highly. A letter was read con-cerning the home at No. 919 Locust street, Philadelphia, and statements were made in regard to similar establishments in Chicago and New York. All of these institutions were reported to be successful in their labors, and instrumental in reforming many young women.

thus a cracker for breakfast. So I came to With that one could get to young, and my husband deserted me when I was 16 years old. I was penniless and ig the ground. The next day I found my way to a disorderly house. I did not know its real nature when I entered, but I will say that I was glad to find a place to lay my got money and property and became a pro-prietress. I thought nothing about religion. What I had seen of it dld not impress me Acry well. For many years we never heard a word about religion nor the voice of one pure, woman. We were not heathens exactly, but we lived in greater darkness. I was led into this work by seeing that when a girl became sick she had no place to go. When she died we buried her, but no prayer was ever said over her dead body. I went, at different times, to get a minister to pray at a funeral. They all refused, Seeing these things I went to the Chief of Police and offered to provide for any girl who should fall sick.

THE OFFER ACCEPTED.

the Episcopal minister came to see me. He tried to persuade me to become a Christian, but I told him I did not wish to have anything to do with religion. I told him if he could of that class in the city were present, and they heard words which most of them never had heard before. The minister called on me again. I do not believe he would have persunded me, but he brought with him a good woman. She led me into the work which we are now conducting in Grand Rapids. I hard to give that up, but one night the house was closed."

Emerson Home in Grand Rapids was mannged. Her story deeply impressed the listeners, and several speakers said that no greater incentive could be given for the work than that woman's simple tale.

Rev. Dr. Felton, of Christ Church, advised the acceptance of the offer of Miss Basendorf. Rev. Mr. Sproull moved that the gift he accepted, and that a permanent society be organized, which was carried. A committee was appointed to nominate officers for the iration at the next meeting. That meeting will be held at 2 o'clock next Friday after-noon in the Third United Presbyterian Mrs. C. E. Locke was called to the chair and Miss B. M. Such was elected secretary.

MISS TOUNG'S TALE OF WOE. Miss Young was then introduced by Rev. Mr. Locke, and told her story of the founding of the Grand Rapids home. She said:
"My mother was poor. She worked by the day, but I believe she was a good woman. The Bible was sometimes open on the table when we had nothing to eat. Every mornng she prayed, but did not give us more think that prayer and religion did not do much good. Money was the thing to be clothing and a fine house. I was married very norant. I started out to find work, but I found a policeman. He took me to the station house. Next day there was no place to send me except to the county jail, and I was sent there. From that place I was transferred to the poor farm. The authorities then sent word to the mother of my husband that if she did not give me a home she would be prosecuted. So she took me in. She was poor herself, and could not well afford to keep me. One day she suggested that I ought to go to an intelligence office and try to find work. I went, but got nothing. Then I visited some of the rich houses, but without getting employment. That night I slept on
